

Building
Our Islands

ARTitecture

Email your design to marketing@lanntair.com
Deadline 21st of March

Artist's name:

History of the Nicolson Institute Clock Tower

Built in 1873, an Italianate tower is all that survives of the elementary and infant schools on Sandwick Road, demolished amidst much controversy and replaced by a Sports Centre in 1975.

Lights on Sat 25 & Mon 27 March

How to create your ARTitecture:

Create your design inside of the building for your work of ART to be projected on the Nicolson Institute Clock Tower.

You can either bring in your completed "canvas" in person to An Lanntair or Museum nan Eilean or scan it to email it. If scanning please ensure it is high res but not more than 5MB.

Please visit www.lanntair.com for more information on Building our Islands

