SAMHRADH | SUMMER 2019

FÁILTE WELCOME

Welcome to summertime at An Lanntair! And goodness, what a summer of arts we have on offer this year. The music programme alone is so inspiring this season, with everything from international concert pianist, Robin Colvill, to Welsh harpist and Senegalese kora player, Catrin Finch and Seckou Keita, to the incredible Scottish Chamber Orchestra Wind Soloists, and much more in between. I can't imagine a more diverse and compelling programme, what a treat.

And let's not forget that IT'S FESTIVAL SEASON and once again An Lanntair will play host to a Heb Celt 2019 Stage packed with world-class acts, including our very own Between Islands and Hebridean Women shows. I'm also really happy to say we've now launched Open Music Sessions for new artists and acts to try out new work and tunes each month on our Cafe Bar Stage – all part of the extensive work we are doing now across our local artist support programme.

Summer also offers a great chance for our local young people to get creative during the holidays, and this year I'm pleased to say we have another amazing programme on offer. I am particularly excited to see the work that Scottish Youth Theatre will be doing with children from 8 - 18 years old in week-long theatre summer schools this July.

Finally, if you're planning to go to the theatre this summer, I urge you come to the premiere of the brilliant Dogstar Theatre's new play, The Stornoway Way, this August. We are so proud to be premiering the play of Kevin's MacNeil's highly acclaimed book here at An Lanntair. Be sure to book early, this one is surely not to be missed!

"Tha am prògram ciùil air leth sònraichte am bliadhna"

ELLY FLETCHER

Ceannard | Chief Executive

Fàilte chun t-samhradh aig An Lanntair!

Agus abair thusa taghadh de dhéalain air an t-samhradh seo. Tha am prògram ciùil air leth sònraichte am bliadhna, eadar am fear cluich piàna eadar-nàiseanta, Robin Colvill, an cluicheadair clàrsach Cuimreach agus an cluicheadair kora Senegalais, Catrin Finch agus Seckou Keita, gu luchd-ciùil iongantach an Scottish Chamber Orchestra, agus tòrr mòr a bharrachd air sin. Cha b' urrainn dhomh smaoineachadh air prògram na b' eadar-dhealaichte agus na b' fhèarr, abair thusa treata.

Agus na diochuimhnichibh gur e SEÀSAN NA FÈISE a tha ann agus aon uair eile bidh An Lanntair a' toirt aoigheachd do stèidse Heb Celt 2019 lumalànn chur-seachadan aig ire na cruinne, a' gabhal a-steach nan taisbeanaidhean againn fhèin, Between Islands agus Hebridean Women. Tha mi cuideachd air leth toilichte innse dhuibh gu bheil sinn a-nis air Open Music Sessions a chur air chois airson luchd-ealain agus tachartasan ùra gus obair ùr agus fuinn fheuchainn a-mach gach mìos air Stèidse a' Chafaidh Bar - pàirt dhan obair mhòir a tha sinn a' dèanamh thar a' phrògram taic againn do luchd-ealain ionadail.

Tha an samhradh cuideachd a' toirt taic don öigridh ionadail a bhith cruthachail tro na saor-làithean, agus am bliadhna tha mi toilichte innse gu bheil prògram miòrbhaileach againn ga thabhann. Tha mi air leth toilichte leis an obair a tha an Scottish Youth Theatre gu bhith a' dèanamh le clann aois 8 gu 16 ann an sgoiltean samhraidh teàtar a mhaireas fad seachdain san Iuchair.

Mu dheireadh, ma tha sibh am beachd a dhol dhan theàtar air an t-samhradh seo, bu chòir dhuibh a thighinn chun chiad shealladh den dealbh-chluich, ùr, miòrbhaileach aig Dogstar Theatre, The Stornoway Way, san Lùnastal. Tha sinn aig An Lanntair cho toilichte a bhith a' foillseachadh an deilbh-chluich seo a tha stèidhichte air an leabhar aig Kevin MacNeil a tha air mòr mholadh fhaighinn. Dèanaibh cinnteach gum buc sibh tràth, oir chan eil math dhuibh seo a chall!

18 CÈIT – 29 ÒGMH PALIMPSEST: COMANN LUCHD-EALAIN ALBANNACH

Tha am falal palimpsest – air a chleachadh mar as trice co-cheangailte ri làmh-sgriobhainnean bho na meadhan aoisean – mar ‘rud a tha air ath-chleachadh no air atharrachadh ach le coltas ris an rìochd a bha aige ron seo’. Chithear obair le 24 sàr luchd-ealain bho air feadh Alba san taisbeanadh seo a tha a’ dèlilgeadh ris a’ bhun-bheachd seo. Mar eisimpleir; mar a tha am fearann air atharrachadh, air ath-chleachadh is air ath-mhineachadh. Tha an taisbeanadh seo mar thoradh air a’ chom-pàirteachas leantainneach a tha a’ dol air adhart eadar Comann Luchd-ealain Albannach agus An Lanntair an dèidh Làrach an taisbeanadh de luchd-ealain às na h-eileanan a chaidh a chumail san RSA sa Ghearran 2018.

18 MAY – 29 JUN PALIMPSEST: SOCIETY OF SCOTTISH ARTISTS

A palimpsest – most often used in reference to mediaeval manuscripts - is ‘something reused or altered but still bearing visible traces of its earlier form’.

This exhibition features artwork by 24 leading artists from across Scotland that reference this concept. For example; how the land is similarly erased, reused, written-over. The show is the result of an ongoing partnership between the Society of Scottish Artists and An Lanntair following the Làrach exhibition of Island artists held at the RSA in February 2018.

DIS 6 IUCH – DIS 17 LÙNA EILEANACH: DÒMHNALL MAC A’ GHOBHAINE

Bha Dòmhnull Iain Mac a’ Ghobhainn a rugadh air an tuath ann an Leòdhas ann an 1926 – a ràir na sgriobh Ian Fleming, Prionnsabal Sgoil Ealain Gray ann an 1958 – “sàr oilleanach a bhliadhna ... gun cheist am bithean aig a bheil comas air leth mar neach-ealain.” An dèidh sin bha an obair aige air a thaisbeannadh anns an Royal Scottish Academy, Society of Scottish Artists, Aberdeen Artists, An Lanntair agus ann an àiteachan eile. Bha obair a’ gabhail a-steach glusadan ann an obair-ealain san Roinn Èòrpa agus ann an Ameireaga ach dh’fhan e dileas don chuspair aige. Bhon stiùidio aige air Taobh Siar Eilean Leòdhais bho 1974 gus an do chaochail e ann an 2014, bha na h-iomhaighean làidir, dòn a rinn e de dh’iagairean is boireannaich bhon eilean a’ comharrachadh neart spiorad mhic an duine. Taisbeannadh air leth.

An cois an taisbeanaidh tha an leabhar ‘Donald Smith, The Paintings of an Islander’, a chaidh fhoillseachadh le Acair. Tha an leabhar làn dhealbhan air an tarraig is air am peantadh, agus sgriobhadh sa Ghàidhlig agus sa Bheurla.

6 JUL – 17 AUG ISLANDER: DONALD SMITH

Born in rural Lewis in 1926, Donald John Smith was – wrote Gray’s School of Art Principal Ian Fleming in 1958 - ‘the outstanding student of his year ... unquestionably a man of great ability as an artist.’

He would go on to be exhibited at the Royal Scottish Academy, Society of Scottish Artists, Aberdeen Artists, An Lanntair and elsewhere. His painting acknowledged movements in Europe and America but remained resolutely local in its subject. From his studio on the West Side of Lewis from 1974 to his death in 2014, his intense, lyrical images of Island fishermen and women celebrate the indomitability of the human spirit. A landmark exhibition.

Accompanying the exhibition is ‘Donald Smith, The Paintings of an Islander’, published by Acair. Richly illustrated with drawings, paintings and portraits, along with insightful essays in Gaelic and English.

LÀ NA SÀBAID 7 IUCH FIRST THERE IS A MOUNTAIN

▼ Tràigh Chuil

Is e obair ealain ùr a tha ann am First There is a Mountain le Katie Paterson a tha a' ceangal a' phobaill ri beanntan an t-saoghal.

Air chuairt bho Là na Sàbaid 31 Màrt gu Là na Sàbaid 27 Dàmhair 2019, tha am pròiseact a' gabhair a-steach seata de 'pheilichean agus spaidean' ann an rìochd beanntan an t-saoghal, agus gheibh am poball an cothrom beanntan de ghaimhmeach a thogail thar costa na RA agus thèid cruinn-eòlas an t-saoghal nàdarr a fhoillseachadh. Tha gach peile a' rìochdachadh còig de bheanntan an t-saoghal: Mount Kilimanjaro (Afraga), Mount Shasta (USA), Mount Fuji (Àsia), Stromboli (An Roinn Eòrpa), agus Uluru (Oceania), a tha air an tarraing taobh ri taobh.

SUN 7 JULY FIRST THERE IS A MOUNTAIN

▼ Coll Beach

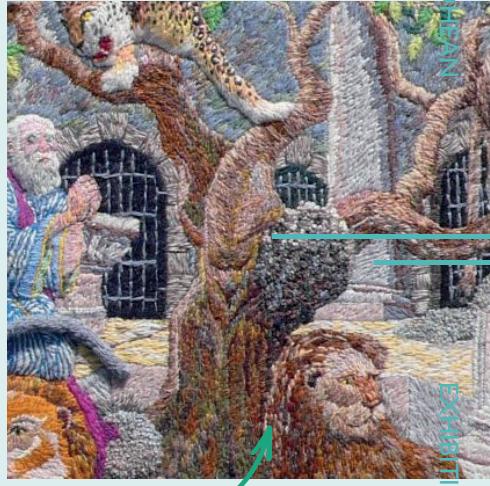

'First There is a Mountain' is a new artwork by Katie Paterson that connects the public to the world's diverse mountains ranges.

Touring from Sun 31 Mar to Sun 27 Oct 2019, the project involves the creation of a set of 'buckets and spades' in the form of world mountains, from which the public will be invited to build mountains of sand across the UK coastline and play out the world's natural geography against a series of tidal times.

Each pail is a scale model of five of Earth's mountains: Mount Kilimanjaro (Africa), Mount Shasta (USA), Mount Fuji (Asia), Stromboli (Europe), and Uluru (Oceania), are nested together.

DIS 24 LÙN – DIS 5 DÀMH ALL THAT I DO: TOM HICKMAN

Tha am pròiseact seo mar ùmhachd is mar theisteanas do neach-ealain is neach-cruinneachaidh iongantach, agus aig teismheadhan an taisbeanaidh seo tha sreach de dhòbair-ghréis mhiorbhaileach le seallaidhean às a' Bhíoball, eadar Gàrradh Eden is Àirc Noah gu Breith Iosa. Bidh stuthan bhon chruiinneachadh farsaing aig Tom air a thaisbeanadh cuideachd – eadar àirneis, ealain agus stuthan air an cruthachadh bho shligean a thàinig bho cho fada air falbh ri Ceann Iardheas Astràilia agus Iar-thuath Alba.

24 AUG – 5 OCT ALL THAT I DO: TOM HICKMAN

As much a homage and testament to an extraordinary artist and collector, the core of this exhibition is a series of gorgeous, narrative stump-work embroideries of biblical scenes, from the Garden of Eden to Noah's Ark to the Nativity.

Also displayed will be a wide range of rare, unusual and esoteric works from Tom's collection. These include furniture pieces, naïve folk art and complex and beautiful assemblages created from shells from South West Australia to North West Scotland.

TRAVELLING GALLERY

Travelling Gallery's Spring 2019 exhibition, 'Displaced', will explore how artists are responding to global migration and the refugee crisis now. With ongoing international conflicts and the continued displacement of human beings, artists are asking us to question how we view, understand, and represent refugees and migrants.

The exhibition includes photography, printmaking, film and painting by Halil Altindere, Brendan Bannon, Broomberg and Chanarin, Elizabeth Kwant and Alberta Whittle.

Travelling Gallery will be touring Lewis and Harris from Wed 5 Jun to Mon 10 Jun.

CÒIG

Tha Còig eadar-dhealaichte ri rud sam bith eile, le ceithir tèlantán eadar-dhealaichte air an cur ri chèile. Tha iad uile stèidhichte san dualchas le rudeigin eile a bharrachd an cois gach fear. Am fidhlear Chrissy Crowley le blasad de cheol an t-saighail is an là an-diugh, an cluicheadar piàna Jason Roach le ceum ann an jazz, Darren McMullen (giòtar, banjo, mandolin, msaa) a tha air a bhith an lùib buidhnean Èireannach agus roc, agus am fidhlear Rachel Davis bho dhualchas Cheap Breatainn le blasad folc cuideachd.

Tha iad luma-làn spionadh agus a' còrdadh gu mòr ri luchd-éisteachd bho air feadh an t-saighail. Chan e a-mhàin an ceòl a tha a' còrdadh ri daoine ach na h-òrain cuideachd mar am fear aig Rove, riochdachadh Ceilteach de "Solsbury Hill" aig Peter Gabriel.

Is e Còig an rud as fheàrr ann an ceòl traidiseanta, ach ann an roichd neo-thraidiseanta.. £12/£10

THURS 6 JUN 8PM

CÒIG

Còig is like no other, thanks to the unique mix of four different talents. They all have traditional roots, but each brings something more.

Fiddler Chrissy Crowley has touches of world and contemporary music. Pianist Jason Roach has a jazz degree, Darren McMullen (guitar, banjo, mandolin, etc.) has worked everywhere from Irish to rock groups and fiddler Rachel Davis is the most Cape Breton trad, but with folk flavours as well.

The energy is off the scale, with audiences from New England theatres to European festivals “hootin’ and hollerin’ and clappin’ and stompin’ and goin’ on,” according to McMullen. They’re also falling for the group’s vocal numbers, including Rove’s stand-out, a Celticized version of Peter Gabriel’s “Solsbury Hill.”

The best in trad music, in a non-traditional way. That’s Còig.

THE STORNOWAY WAY

The Stornoway Way is a romantic tragicomedy about alcoholic young drifters on the Isle of Lewis. These are characters who are outcast from, yet inescapably part of their Hebridean culture, whether they are physically there or not, on the margins of the margin. They leave and return, struggling with their identity and their alienation from both society and each other, searching for love as a path to salvation.

Written in English, with some Gaelic, the production will have a cast of three young actors, directed by Matthew Zajac. Live and recorded music and sound, composed and designed by Pippa Murphy, will play an important role. At times, the actors will include the audience in the storytelling, inviting us to be part of this poetic, provocative and funny ceilidh play.
